

Upper School Humanities/American History

Jackson Hole Classical Academy Seeks an Upper School (9–12) Humanities Teacher

Candidates should possess expertise in or experience teaching American history and literature is preferred, though we welcome candidates with expertise in other areas who are able and willing to teach American history and literature. The position will also require a teacher to teach 1–2 other courses at the middle school or high-school level, depending on experience and interest.

The curriculum of JH Classical Academy is in the classical liberal arts tradition. The Academy believes that each student is created in the image and likeness of God and that the pursuit of truth always begins with a sense of wonder. As educators, we seek “to cultivate within our students the wisdom and virtue necessary to discover their God-given potential and contribute to a flourishing and free society.” The Academy seeks passionate teachers who provide intellectually rigorous instruction, attend to the formation of good habits in students, and contribute to a joyful atmosphere. As a young and growing institution, JH Classical Academy seeks versatile team-players motivated to use their talents to help build a thriving K–12 school.

Jackson Hole, gateway to both Grand Teton and Yellowstone National Parks, is visually stunning and offers an unsurpassed quality of life. Recreation opportunities abound. The attractiveness of Jackson makes housing difficult to find, so the Academy assists incoming employees in that search.

If you would like to be considered for a position, please submit a cover letter, resume, and completed Initial Inquiry: Faculty form to careers@jhclassical.org.

“Educating the mind without educating the heart is no education at all.” -Aristotle